

The Journey

by Geoffrey Morlet

1950s Australia. Charlie Hunter is young, healthy and vigorous. He is about to embark on a journey; the journey of life from being a young, carefree medical student to becoming a qualified doctor. It's the tale of a typical young medical student enjoying life to the full, sharing laughter and good times with friends. The journey also provides Charlie with a choice to make concerning the fairer sex. Should he choose the beautiful, wholesome, homestate girl, Sally Johson? Can he resist the magnetic attraction of ballet dancer Sara Martin?

Tears and laughter blend perfectly in this warmly nostalgic look at a boy growing into a man.
